“ My wife Laurie and I met Danny and Dianne a couple of years ago on a Cruise ship in the Carribbean. We've been on several cruises and never really bonded with other people much, just had fun as a couple. When we met these folks at dinner, we just clicked. A true, genuine, Christian couple. Dianne was always just full of life and such a joy to be around. We've kept up with them on Facebook and always admired the Love of God coming through her FB posts. We visited them once this year and attended their church. We're 200 miles away or we would have visited more. This Lady, and Danny greatly impacted our lives by letting their light shine, even when they didn't have to. She could be a hoot sometimes at formal dining, yeah I took those goofy pics at the dinner table. We all had a blast going to the shows, parades etc. She will be missed by all who knew her. I pray God's comfort and peace over Danny and her family.

“ She was my Sunday school teacher growing up. She would come pick me up for church, choir practice, and Christmas play rehearsal when my mom could not make it. She always had a beautiful smile for everyone. She was a true blessing to everyone that knew her. Praying for the family and friends. Kim Blevins Jones
