“Gerald was a pillar in our community and an upstanding Christian man to be remember fondly. I have wonderful memories of his signing and his testimony that I will treasure, for he sang at my daddy's funeral Peace in the Valley...his voice in a song gave me reassurance that Daddy was in a better place...now he is up there singing in the heavenly choir with several other Sims Communiy Chirstians (daddy included). Family please take comfort in his great memories you were able to share with him. And the fact that you are surrounded by loved ones that share in your sorrow and are praying for you.

Love you all, Rhonda Kelley Boyett

“One of the kindest men I've ever known. Proud to have been his nurse and friend. I feel very honored to have know him. Never heard an unkind word of him. God bless to his precious family!

“ I remember Gerald coming to revivals at Antioch as far back as I could remember. He was a friend to my Granddad and my Dad. Having lost my Dad last year I know the pain the family is going through. Heaven has added another great voice to the choir. My sincere condolences to the family. Jon Cook, son of Raymond (Sonny) Cook Jr.
