“ I can hardly express my sadness to hear of Joe's passing. We go back over fifty years, as we served together in Vietnam. I was his platoon leader and he was my platoon sargeant. We went through a great deal together, and I even included him by name in two of my books. I loved the guy. I had reconnected with him several years ago, and actually spent some time with him at his home last summer. I was really looking forward to our next visit. He sent me a hat a couple of years ago which I will now treasure even more. My condolences to the whole family. Joe will be sorely missed by many; that is for sure. I will pass the word and his obituary to those that I know of his old unit from Vietnam. My heart goes out to all of his friends and family for this great loss.
