“ Aunt Melba was a dedicated wife, mother, sister, and aunt. She always had a caring heart . She was full of joy and peace. Not only was she quite beautiful, but she also had a beautiful laugh! She was quite full of life. She was the adventurous one among the sisters and the appointed driver for their vacations.

I like to remember a story she told about going to a church conference as a young teenager and innocently playing on the piano "Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree With Anyone Else but Me" and her father having a fit. She just liked the pep and joy of the song.

My condolences go out to my cousins and aunt Jean. I will carry her in my heart as you will. Thanks be to God Who wipes away every tear and makes all things new.
